"Every thing has been quiet—that is, I mean everything has been under control since 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon. That noise you hear here at the gate is chiefly because of the acoustics of the building, where fifty girls are confined."

Blunt Instruments Discarded.

The acoustics seemed very good. With out cessation the medley of shricks and catcalls continued. Occasionally some phrase rose audibly above the chorus, but nothing printable came to the ears from across the peaceful green fields, borne by a gentle breeze that swayed the treetops. It appeared that the bad feeling of Saturday was still flaming among the inmates, but confining walls prevented the hurling of flatirons, as on the day previous, so remarks were pass-

Every motor highway and byway throughout picturesque New England and New York is a part of the long "Socony Trail".

"Every Gallon the Same"

THE number of conveniently located Socony I gasoline stations is always increasing. All over historic New England and New York State, Socony service has grown with every community.

The Socony standard of service has always been to furnish Socony products wherever the need for them-however small-was manifested.

As a result, the scope of this service has been constantly broadened. The public requires motor fuel and oils of Socony quality. Motorists demand them because they are uniformly clean and efficient-none better are produced Those most interested in gasoline economylarge users-have found that the regular use of one standard motor fuel of uniform quality gives the greatest satisfaction over long periods. There is less carbonization, a permanent carburetor adjustment is possible as well as more accurate checking of mileage. You can fill up regularly with Socony gasoline almost anywhere from Eastport, Maine, to Lockport, New York, and from Long Island
